

INSTRUCTIONS

Before the huddle, review your organization's bullying and harassment reporting procedure. If your organization does not have a bullying and harassment reporting procedure, or it needs updating, refer to the Developing Reporting Procedures: Workplace Bullying and Harassment document to guide you through the process.

During the huddle, use the guiding questions to facilitate a discussion about when and how to report bullying and harassment.

AFTER THIS HUDDLE

Staff should know how to:

- Report bullying and harassment.
- Have an understanding of what bullying and harassment is

NOTES TO THE HUDDLE LEADER

- Understand that this can be a sensitive and intimidating topic, so it is important not to pressure staff who are hesitant to share their views and experiences.

Sample workplace bullying and harassment complaint form

This is an example of a complaint form for workers to report incidents or complaints of workplace bullying and harassment to the employer. It can be adapted to meet the needs of individual workplaces. Employers might use other reporting procedures, and are not required to use this form. A Microsoft® Word version of this form is available at www.worksafebc.com/bullying.

Name and contact information of complainant: _____

Name of alleged bully or bullies: _____

Personal statement

Please describe in as much detail as possible the bullying and harassment incident(s), including:

- the names of the parties involved
- any witnesses to the incident(s)
- the location, date, and time of the incident(s)
- details about the incident(s) (behaviour and/or words used)
- any additional details that would help with an investigation
