

2019 MEMBER SURVEY

SafeCare BC
CELEBRATING 5 YEARS SUPPORTING CONTINUING CARE

Brand Awareness

Awareness of SafeCare BC has grown since 2017!

SafeCare BC's Impact

75%

of supervisors and managers said they were more aware of workplace health and safety because of SafeCare BC

64% of supervisors and managers, 54% of senior leaders and 40% of front-line staff agreed SafeCare BC has changed their organizations' health and safety practices

What You Told Us

Most Important Training Areas

- (1) Mental Health and Stress for workers
- (2) Dementia Care
- (3) Safe Resident/Client Handling
- (4) Violence Prevention

TOP 3

Priorities for SafeCare BC:

- (1) Training
- (2) Providing Online Resources
- (3) Awareness Campaigns

Preferred training methods: (1) In-person training, (2) online, (3) video resources and (4) webinars

You Took The Survey

284 people completed the survey

- 37% Front-line staff
- 37% Senior leaders
- 27% Supervisors

Top ways people interact with SafeCare BC

- Emails and newsletters
- In-person workshops
- SafeCare BC website